“Pray, pray to the Lord with me, because the whole world needs prayer. And every day, when your heart especially feels the loneliness of life, pray. Pray to the Lord, because even God needs our prayers.”

– St. Pio of Pietrelcina

Volunteers for Religious Education

We are in need of assistants or team members. The roles and responsibilities would be to assist our teachers with their classes and help monitor a safe and welcoming environment for our students, and their families, as they grow closer to our Lord and learn the faith. We could use help in Catechism, Confirmation, or RCIA.

If you are interested in helping out, or would like to know more details about what a volunteer's role is, please contact Catherine Kleinjan at 505-577-0102 or email at stannescdd@gmail.com.

On 2/12/97 we started the Thursday Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament at St Anne and we had a full day of adorers. However many of them have died or are ill and can no longer get to the church to complete their committed hour. We now need additional people to sign up for an hour with our Lord. If interested in committing yourself to an hour a week with our Lord, please call Toni at 505 920 8383 to sign up so we can continue this wonderful way of honoring him.

Saints Cosmos and Damian

The judge ordered them to be thrown into a large fire, but the flames leaped away from them and killed many. They were then ordered to be placed on a torture device... but an angel of the Lord protected them... The judge ordered the three to be imprisoned and had Cosmo and Damian crucified and stoned by the people, but the stones flew back at those who threw them, injuring many. Then the judge, filled with madness, made the three brothers stand by the cross and commanded four knights to shoot arrows at Cosmo and Damian. However, the arrows turned back... When the judge saw this, he was utterly baffled, tormented to the point of death, and ordered all five brothers to be beheaded together.

St. Januarius was born in Italy and was bishop of Benevento during the Emperor Diocletion persecution. Bishop Januarius went to visit two deacons and two laymen in prison. He was then also imprisoned along with his deacon and lector. They were thrown to the wild beasts, but when the animals did not attack them, they were beheaded. What is believed to be Januarius' blood is kept in Naples, as a relic. It liquifies and bubbles when exposed in the cathedral. Scientists have not been able to explain this miracle to date. St. Januarius lived and died around 305 A.D. and his feast day is September 19th.
